

JANUARY

MIRANDA FEBUS

STUDENT OF THE MONTH

January has begun with a successful start as Miranda Febus earns the title of January's Student of the Month. Ranked sixth in her class, she has worked diligently and consistently to achieve this honor and has successfully impressed the Student of the Month Committee with an overall grade point average of 98.9.

In addition to excelling in her classes such as AP English and AP Government and Politics, Miranda enjoys learning about interesting topics in her favorite classes, Journalism and Film and Literature.

Miranda is the co-editor for the Cat's Eye View newspaper, co-captain for the debate team, secretary of the National Honor Society and vice president of the Spanish Honor Society. She is also a member of Key Club, Environmental Club, Yearbook Committee, Girls Helping Girls and the Images staff.

"Throughout her time here at Becton, she has learned how to be responsible. "It's important to be the best you that you can be," she states. In the future, Miranda plans to attend Pace University, Fordham University or Syracuse University in the hopes of studying Communications and Journalism as well as English.
